LOCAL LAW NO. 3 OF 2023

Article I and Article II of Chapter 16 of the Town Code, entitled "Ethics, Code Of" are hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

[Article III and Article IV of Chapter 16 shall remain in full force and effect].

Chapter 16. ETHICS, CODE OF

Article I. Intent; Definitions; Standards

§ 16-1. Legislative declaration; purpose; Code of Ethics established.

A. Article 18 of the General Municipal Law prohibits the officers and employees of a municipality from having certain conflicts of interest. Section 806 of the General Municipal Law requires the governing body of each county, city (other than the City of New York), town, village, school district and fire district to adopt a Code of Ethics that sets forth for the guidance of its officers and employees standards of conduct reasonably expected of them. Section 806 of the General Municipal Law also authorizes the governing body of any other municipality to adopt such a Code of Ethics.

B. The citizens of the Town of Coeymans should expect that the Town's officers and employees behave honestly and ethically and that such officers and employees do not use their positions for personal gain.

C. This Code of Ethics is intended to provide all Town officers and employees, as well as the public, with the standards of ethical conduct that are intended to ensure that Town government functions in an ethical manner, and that the needs and interests of the public come before any private or political interests. It is intended to provide guidance and support to the Town's officers and employees, as well as to those who do business with the town or who wish to do so.

D. In furtherance of these fundamental principles, the Coeymans Town Board establishes the following Code of Ethics.

INTEREST

A direct or indirect financial or material benefit, but does not include any benefit arising from the provision or receipt of any services generally available to the residents or taxpayers of the municipality, or an area of the municipality, or a lawful class of such residents or taxpayers. ## OFFICE IN A POLITICAL PARTY

The Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary or Treasurer, or any other elected or appointed officeholder of a political party, but shall not include committee members.

OFFICER

Any paid or unpaid official of the Town of Coeymans, including but not limited to, all elected officers, anyone required to file an oath of office pursuant to § 25 of the Town Law, and any member of a Town administrative board, commission, committee or agency, as well as any department head or other person serving in a similar or like capacity.

§ 16-3. Applicability; supersession of prior provisions.

This Code of Ethics applies to the officers and employees of the Town of Coeymans and shall supersede any prior municipal Code of Ethics. The provisions of this Code of Ethics shall apply in addition to all applicable state and local laws relating to conflicts of interest and ethics, including, but not limited to, Article 18 of the General Municipal Law and all rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the Town of Coeymans.

§ 16-4. Standards of conduct. Every officer or employee of the Town of Coeymans shall be subject to and abide by the following standards of conduct:

A. Prohibition on use of municipal position for personal or private gain. No municipal officer or employee shall use his or her municipal position or official powers and duties to knowingly secure a financial or material benefit for himself or herself, a relative, or any private organization in which he or she is deemed to have an interest.

B. Disclosure of interest in legislation and other matters.

(1) Whenever a matter requiring the exercise of discretion comes before a municipal officer or employee, either individually or as a member of a board, and disposition of the matter could result in a direct or indirect financial or material benefit to himself or herself, a relative, or any private organization in which he or she is deemed to have an interest, the municipal officer or employee shall disclose, in writing, the nature of the interest.

(2) The disclosure shall be made when the matter requiring disclosure first comes before the municipal officer or employee or when the municipal officer or employee first acquires knowledge of the interest requiring disclosure, whichever is earlier.

(3) In the case of a person serving in an elective office, the disclosure shall be filed with the governing board of the municipality. In all other cases, the disclosure shall be filed with the person's supervisor, or, if the person does not have a supervisor, the disclosure shall be filed with the municipal officer, employee or board having the power to appoint to the person's position. In addition, in the case of a person serving on a municipal board, a copy of the disclosure shall be filed with the board. In addition, all disclosures shall be made to the Ethics Board, the Town Board and the Town Clerk.

C. Recusal and abstention.

(1) No municipal officer or employee may participate in any decision or take any official action with respect to any matter requiring the exercise of discretion, including deliberating and voting on the matter, when he or she knows or has reason to know that the action could confer a direct or indirect financial or material benefit on himself or herself, a relative, or any private organization in which he or she is deemed to have an interest.

(2) In the event that this section prohibits a municipal officer or employee from exercising or performing a power or duty:

(a) If the power or duty is vested in a municipal officer as a member of a board, then the power or duty shall be exercised or performed by the other members of the board; or

(b) If the power or duty is vested in a municipal officer individually, then the power or duty shall be exercised or performed by his or her deputy or, if the officer does not have a deputy, the power or duty shall be performed by another person to whom the officer may lawfully delegate the function; or

(c) If the power or duty is vested in a municipal employee, he or she must refer the matter to his or her immediate supervisor, and the immediate supervisor shall designate another person to exercise or perform the power or duty.

D. Prohibition inapplicable; disclosure, recusal and abstention not required.

(1) This code's prohibition on use of a municipal position (§ 16-4A), disclosure requirements (§ 16-4B), and requirements relating to recusal and abstention (§ 16-4C), shall not apply with respect to the following matters:

(1) No municipal officer or employee may acquire the following investments:

(a) Investments that can be reasonably expected to require more than sporadic recusal and abstention under § 16-4C of this code; or

(b) Investments that would otherwise impair the person's independence of judgment in the exercise or performance of his or her official powers and duties.

(2) This section does not prohibit a municipal officer or employee from acquiring any other investments or the following assets:

(a) Real property located within the municipality and used as his or her personal residence;

(b) Less than 5% of the stock of a publicly traded corporation; or

(c) Bonds or notes issued by the municipality and acquired more than one year after the date on which the bonds or notes were originally issued.

F. Personal representations and claims permitted. This code shall not be construed as prohibiting a municipal officer or employee from:

(2) Asserting a claim against the municipality on his or her own behalf, or on behalf of his or her spouse or minor children.

G. Use of municipal resources.

I. Nepotism. Except as otherwise required by law:

(1) No municipal officer or employee, either individually or as a member of a board, may participate in any decision whether to appoint, hire, promote, discipline or discharge a relative for any position for or within the Town of Coeymans.

(2) No municipal officer or employee may directly supervise a relative in the performance of the relative's official powers or duties.

(3) Nothing contained herein shall prevent those Town officers and Town employees who, as of the effective date of this Code of Ethics, currently serve the Town from continuing to do so. Those persons shall be grandfathered in. Additionally, for such grandfathered individuals, the performance review, job duties or assignments and awards of overtime are subject to annual review by the Director of Human Resources, and in the event that problems are identified, they may be referred to the Town Board.

(4) Whenever a known relative of a Town officer or employee would be approved for seasonal or other employment with the Town, the appointment will be forwarded to the Human Resources Department for final review to assure compliance with the Town's current hiring guidelines.

J. Political solicitations.

(1) No municipal officer or employee shall directly or indirectly use his or her official authority to compel or induce another municipal officer or employee to make or promise to make any political contribution, whether by gift of money, service or other thing of value.

(2) No municipal officer or employee may act or decline to act in relation to appointing, hiring or promoting, discharging, disciplining or in any manner changing the official rank, status or compensation of any current municipal officer or employee, or an applicant for a position as a municipal officer or employee, on the basis of the giving or withholding of, or neglecting to make, any contribution of money or service or any other valuable thing for any political purpose.

(3) No employee shall engage in political campaign activities during his or her assigned working hours.

(4) No Town officer or employee shall use Town resources for any political campaign or political activities.

K. Confidential information. No municipal officer or employee who acquires confidential information in the course of exercising or performing his or her official powers or duties may disclose or use such information unless the disclosure or use is required by law or in the course of exercising or performing his or her official powers and duties.

(2) This section does not prohibit accepting or receiving gifts which meet any of the following criteria:

(a) Gifts made to the municipality;

(d) Unsolicited advertising or promotional material of little intrinsic value, such as pens, pencils, notepads and calendars;

(e) Awards and plaques having no resale value which are publicly presented in recognition of service as a municipal officer or employee or other service to the community; or

§ 16-6. Failure to comply.

Any municipal officer or employee who violates this code may be censured, fined or suspended or removed from office or employment in the manner provided by law.
